Calling All SMPs: Make Sure Your Voice Is Heard!

Are you a practitioner operating in a small- or medium-sized practice (SMP)? If so, make sure your voice is heard by taking the May-June 2013 IFAC SMP Quick Poll. The SMP Quick Poll is intended to take a snapshot of the key issues confronting SMPs and their small- and medium-sized entity (SME) clients. This edition of the poll is being conducted in 16 languages (English, Arabic, Chinese, Dutch/Flemish, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese, Romanian, Russian, Spanish, Swedish, and Turkish) thanks to the generous translation support provided by SMP Committee members and IFAC member organizations. This semi-annual poll should take only three minutes to complete and will close on June 21, 2013.

Our last poll received nearly 4,000 responses! Make sure your voice is heard. Take the poll now: http://s-189129-i.sgizmo.com/s3/i-101073369-423993/

You are receiving this email because you signed up to receive eNews from the IFAC Small and Medium Practices (SMP) Committee. Thank you in advance for taking the time to complete the survey. Sincerely,
Paul Thompson
Deputy Director, SME and SMP Affairs

About the SMP Committee
The SMP Committee (www.ifac.org/SMP) of the International Federation of Accountants (IFAC) represents the interests of professional accountants operating in small- and medium-sized practices (SMPs). The committee develops guidance and tools and works to ensure the needs of the SMPs are considered by standard setters, regulators, and policy makers. The committee also speaks out on behalf of SMPs to raise awareness of their role and value, especially in supporting SMEs, and the importance of the small business sector overall.

About IFAC
